a guide to our firm

Who we are

Our Firm was formed by the merger of John Aguilar & Asociados, Ltd., and Bufete Castillo Love, two firms with a long history of serving major national and international businesses in complex commercial transactions and dispute resolution in Central America.

Today the firm is a totally integrated Central American law firm with offices in Costa Rica, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua, and Panama.

We also manage our clients' legal affairs with the same high levels of legal excellence and service quality throughout the Caribbean, through our structured affiliations with top quality law firms in all the major civil law and common law jurisdictions in the region.

Our roots

Aguilar Castillo Love is the product of business and legal traditions that reach back for more than three centuries in Central America.

At the time of independence, almost 200 years ago, members of the Aguilar family had already achieved prominence in the practice of law in Costa Rica and El Salvador.

The Castillo Love family has practiced law and been business leaders in Guatemala for more than 120 years.

What we do

Aguilar Castillo Love is a single firm, with offices across Central America, that offers a single point of contact for anyone wishing to conduct business in Central America, Panama and the Caribbean.

As the first integrated law firm in region, we have accumulated a wealth of international experience.

Our goal is to make dealing with legal issues in Central America, Panama and the Caribbean as simple as possible.

How we do it

We set out from the beginning to define an Aguilar Castillo Love way of doing things that is reflected in the way we present ourselves to clients, both actual and potential, to the world at large - and even to each other. When our clients think about Aguilar Castillo Love, we want them to think of us as:

- Honest, with integrity
- Expert, knowledgeable
- Highly professional, solid experience
- Helpful, service oriented
- Forward-looking

Who we work for

Because of our rich history of business leadership in the region, we understand the challenges and opportunities confronting senior decision makers in today's fast-changing business world.

Our job is to make general counsels and other in-house lawyers look good. We not only do our best to deliver cost-effective external legal services when our clients need them, but also to add practical value to our in-house colleagues' management of their companies' legal affairs.

What makes us different

We offer genuine Central American coverage and comprehensive coordination services in the Caribbean region for our clients.

While our competitors have local offices with local attorneys that think locally and work locally; we have local offices but have attorneys who also think regionally and work and move regionally: our concept is the Central American practitioner vs. the local practitioner.

Our commitment to quality

The firm invests heavily in a quality assurance program designed to meet and satisfy our clients' requirements through the standardization and continuous improvement of all the internal processes. Our program is unique among law firms in Central America, Panama and the Caribbean.

The firm strongly believes that in order to excel and truly satisfy its clients, it must implement policies and procedures that ensure that every client, every case, and every transaction receive a consistently high level of professional excellence and service quality - regardless of which professional delivers the service or where it is delivered.
